

GUIDELINES FOR SUPPORT DIRECTORATE
CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE NIXON LIBRARY

- I. Agency support to Presidential travel (foreign and domestic). This should include significant correspondence, plans and programs of communications and security activities in support of Presidential travel.
- II. Agency support to visiting heads of state (again primarily in the security and communications functions).
 - A. Included in this category would be the Office of Medical Services Staff program for evaluating the health of heads of state and other important foreign political and personally personnel.
- III. Support activities in major world trouble spots, particularly South East Asia should be covered in depth.
 - A. Logistics: Unilateral Agency programs as well as joint activities with the military and foreign governments.
 - B. Training: Courses established and designed for training personnel destined for assignment to South East Asia (language, area familiarization, special operations, etc.)
 - C. Personnel: Numbers and types of Support Directorate personnel assigned to Southeast Asia. Special personnel programs, designed for Agency activities in Southeast Asia.
 - D. Communications:- Finance and Medical: Contributions to Southeast Asia programs.
 - E. Okinawa Support Activities in Southeast Asia.
 - F. Agency air support in Southeast Asia.
- IV. Significant items on our relationship with universities and colleges which may have "hit-the-press" and resulted in favorable or unfavorable publicity. (Recruitment - training - co-op program, etc.)

STAT

- V. Office of Security contributions to damage assessments stemming from major leaks and Security flaps. Also, Security participation in Air Marshall Program.
- VI. Office of Training - Agency participation as faculty and students in senior intergovernmental training programs.
- VII. Office of Communications
 - A. Communications support to U.S. participation in international conferences.
 - B. Data links on world-wide basis in support of sophisticated satellite intelligence collection systems.